This European Standard shall be given the status of a national standard, either by publication of an identical text or by endorsement, at the latest by February 2015, and conflicting national standards shall be withdrawn at the latest by February 2015.

Attention is drawn to the possibility that some of the elements of this document may be the subject of patent rights. CEN [and/or CENELEC] shall not be held responsible for identifying any or all such patent rights.

This document supersedes EN 1048:1998.

The main changes with respect to the previous edition are listed below:

- a) Clause 3 “Terms and definitions” is modified;
- b) The revised standard takes into account the current state of the art.

According to the CEN-CENELEC Internal Regulations, the national standards organizations of the following countries are bound to implement this European Standard: Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Croatia, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Turkey and the United Kingdom.

Introduction

This European Standard is one of a series of European Standards dedicated to heat exchangers.

1 Scope

This European Standard applies to remote forced convection air cooled liquid coolers, within which no change in the liquid phase occurs.

This European Standard does not apply to liquid coolers, designed primarily for installation within the machinery compartment of packaged products.

Its purpose is to establish uniform methods to test and ascertain the following:

- Product identification;
- Capacity;
- Air flow rate;
- Liquid side pressure drop;
- Energy requirements.

This European Standard does not cover technical safety aspects.
