Corrigendum to EN 50574-1:2012

English version

This corrigendum replaces the corrigendum issued on 2012-11-30.

- In the Scope, delete the following note:

NOTE This European Standard has been prepared to fulfil the requirements of Directive 2002/96/EC but does not preclude the procedures described herein from being used to treat appliances that are not commonly found in private households.

- Following BT decision D145/C114, renumber EN 50574:2012 into EN 50574-1:2012:

D145/C114 BT approved the request from CLC/TC 111X for New Work Item i.e. the future CLC/prTS 50574-2 'Collection, logistics and treatment requirements for end-of-life household appliances containing volatile fluorocarbons or volatile hydrocarbons – Part 2: Specification for the measurement of de-pollution for treatment of end-of-life household appliances containing volatile fluorocarbons or volatile hydrocarbons' (PR=24900), noting that the existing EN 50574:2012 (PR=22383) will be renumbered EN 50574-1 upon ratification of CLC/TS 50574-2.
