ISO 12821:2013(E)

Foreword

ISO (the International Organization for Standardization) is a worldwide federation of national standards bodies (ISO member bodies). The work of preparing International Standards is normally carried out through ISO technical committees. Each member body interested in a subject for which a technical committee has been established has the right to be represented on that committee. International organizations, governmental and non-governmental, in liaison with ISO, also take part in the work. ISO collaborates closely with the International Electrotechnical Commission (IEC) on all matters of electrotechnical standardization.

The procedures used to develop this document and those intended for its further maintenance are described in the ISO/IEC Directives, Part 1. In particular the different approval criteria needed for the different types of ISO documents should be noted. This document was drafted in accordance with the editorial rules of the ISO/IEC Directives, Part 2. www.iso.org/directives

Attention is drawn to the possibility that some of the elements of this document may be the subject of patent rights. ISO shall not be held responsible for identifying any or all such patent rights. Details of any patent rights identified during the development of the document will be in the Introduction and/or on the ISO list of patent declarations received. www.iso.org/patents

The committee responsible for this document is ISO/TC This document was prepared by CEN/TC 261, Packaging, as EN 14634:2010 and was adopted, under a special "fast-track procedure", by ISO/TC 63, Glass containers, in parallel with its approval by the ISO member bodies.

Introduction

This International Standard is based on CE. T.I.E. (International Technical Centre for Bottling and Related Packaging) data sheet GME 13.01 Revision 1 (2007).[1]

Efficient packaging is of great importance for the distribution and the protection of goods. Insufficient or inappropriate packaging can lead to damage or wastage of the contents of the pack.

INTERNATIONAL STANDARD ISO 12821:2013(E)

Glass packaging — 26 H 180 crown finish — Dimensions

1 Scope

This International Standard specifies the dimensions of the 26-mm-tall crown finish for glass bottles containing beverages. The tall crown finish is designed to use a metal crown closure (see CE. T.I.E. data sheet EC 01-02 Revision 1[2]).
