European foreword

This document (EN 16223-2:2022) has been prepared by Technical Committee CEN/TC 289 “Leather”, the secretariat of which is held by UNI.

This European Standard shall be given the status of a national standard, either by publication of an identical text or by endorsement, at the latest by January 2023, and conflicting national standards shall be withdrawn at the latest by January 2023.

Attention is drawn to the possibility that some of the elements of this document may be the subject of patent rights. CEN shall not be held responsible for identifying any or all such patent rights.

This document, together with EN 16223-1, supersedes EN 16223:2012.

In comparison with the previous edition, the following technical modifications have been made:

- EN 16223:2012, Leather - Requirements for the designation and description of leather in upholstery and automotive interior applications has been split into two parts:
 - Part 1 - Upholstery applications;
 - Part 2 - Automotive interior application (this document).
- Modification in Clause 1 “Scope”, Clause 4 “General principles”, Clause 5 “Requirements” and Clause 6 “Designation”.
- Editorial updates.

Any feedback and questions on this document should be directed to the users’ national standards body. A complete listing of these bodies can be found on the CEN website.

According to the CEN-CENELEC Internal Regulations, the national standards organisations of the following countries are bound to implement this European Standard: Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Croatia, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Republic of North Macedonia, Romania, Serbia, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Turkey and the United Kingdom.

EN 16223-2:2022 (E)Introduction

This document is based on the Code of Practice of the International Council of Tanners (ICT) – Code of Practice on the appropriate designation of leather used in automotive applications (Hong Kong, 30 March 2009).

In the absence of national regulations this document provides the automotive industries with a standard for their commercial communications to customers and the general public when leather is used in their vehicles.

1 Scope

This document specifies requirements for the designations and descriptions used in the exchange of goods when exhibiting, promoting (e.g. advertising and labelling), and placing on the market when leather is used in automotive interiors.

This document provides general guidelines intended to be applied in the designation and description of automotive seating and interiors when reference is made to leather as a constituent material.

The designation or description of leather used in upholstered furniture, leather in footwear, leather goods and leather clothing including gloves are not covered by this document.

2 Normative references

The following documents are referred to in the text in such a way that some or all of their content constitutes requirements of this document. For dated references, only the edition cited applies. For undated references, the latest edition of the referenced document (including any amendments) applies.
