European foreword

This document (EN 17015-2:2026) has been prepared by the Technical Committee CEN/TC 440 Electronic public procurement, the secretariat of which is held by DIN.

This European Standard shall be given the status of a national standard, either by publication of an identical text or by endorsement, at the latest by October 2026, and conflicting national standards shall be withdrawn at the latest by October 2026.

Attention is drawn to the possibility that some of the elements of this document may be the subject of patent rights. CEN shall not be held responsible for identifying any or all such patent rights.

This document falls under a CEN-CENELEC pilot on derivative use (as approved by the CEN/CA (Administrative Board) through decision 37/2019). For more information about the implementation of derivative use in CEN/TC 440.¹

This document is part of a series of multi-part documents prepared, or under preparation, by CEN/TC 440:

- 17011-series: e-Procurement Architecture, providing a set of specifications outlining different aspects of the e-Procurement architecture for Business Interoperability Specifications.
- 17014-series: Pre-Award Business Interoperability Specifications, providing a set of specifications outlining choreography, transaction, syntax binding specifications and guidelines required to support the Pre-Award processes.
- 17015-series: e-Catalogue Business Interoperability Specifications, providing a set of specifications outlining business choreography, transaction, syntax binding specifications and guidelines required to support the e-Catalogue processes.
- 17015-series: e-Ordering Business Interoperability Specifications, providing a set of specifications outlining business choreography, transaction, syntax binding specifications and guidelines required to support the e-Ordering processes.
- 17017-series: e-Fulfilment Business Interoperability Specifications, providing a set of specifications outlining business choreography, transaction, syntax binding specifications and guidelines required to support the e-Delivery processes.

The terms “shall”, “shall not”, “should”, “should not”, “may”, “need not” “can” and “cannot” shall be interpreted according to Clause 7 of part 3 of the CEN-CENELEC internal regulations².

Any feedback and questions on this document should be directed to the users' national standards body. A complete listing of these bodies can be found on the CEN website.

EN 17015-2:2026 (E)

According to the CEN-CENELEC Internal Regulations, the national standards organisations of the following countries are bound to implement this European Standard: Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Croatia, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Republic of North Macedonia, Romania, Serbia, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Türkiye and the United Kingdom.

Introduction

Derivative use pilot

This publication falls under a CEN-CENELEC pilot on derivative use (as approved by the CEN/CA (Administrative Board) through decision 38/2019).

CEN has the copyright to all CEN publications, including their entire content and associated metadata, as described in CEN-CENELEC Guide 10 “Policy on dissemination, sales and copyright of CEN-CENELEC Publications”. However, through the derivative use pilot, CEN gives permission to the copying, replication and translation of content from a CEN/TC 440 deliverables in specific circumstances.

Under the derivative use pilot, specific sections of CEN/TC 440 publications may be copied, replicated and translated in cases, where this is a necessary condition for the meaningful implementation of the publication. The sections which fall under derivative use will typically be elements, such as semantic definitions and rules related to the use of information elements, and the name, definition and description of processes and transactions, which are needed in software solutions, whether intended for sale in the private market or for use in the public sector, and documents guiding the implementation and use in specific countries and/or business sectors.

Under derivative use, any use of content, which has been copied, replicated, or translated from a CEN/TC 440 publication, comply with the intended use of the publication. Derivative use cannot be applied in use cases other than those the publication is intended to support. The intended use of this publication is set out below.

Intended use of this publication

This document has been developed for any organization looking for guidance on the implementation and use of electronic procurement deliverables as well as for organizations developing or implementing software applications related to electronic procurement, such as software providers, business entities and national authorities. These software applications are in conformance with this publication.

Parts of the document to which derivative use apply

Each subclause, which falls under derivative use, will be clearly marked with a note. The degree to which the specific content can be modified, is defined in CEN/TS 17011-3:2024 Electronic Public Procurement – Architecture – Part 3: Customization Guideline.

Annex A provides an overview of the line number references to all subclauses of the publication which fall under derivative use.

Use of eProcurement Ontology (ePO)

This document uses the eProcurement Ontology (ePO), owned by the European Union, available here (<https://github.com/OP-TED/ePO>) and licensed under a CC BY 4.0 licence.

EN 17015-2:2026 (E)1 Scope

This document describes the transaction information requirements of the transactions used in the basic collaborations described in EN 17015-1:2024, Electronic Public Procurement – Catalogue – Part 1: Choreographies. For each transaction there is an overview, the transaction business requirements and the transaction information requirements model containing definitions of terms, usage descriptions and cardinality of the information elements, as well as business rules.

The document describes the following transactions:

- 1) Catalogue;
- 2) Catalogue Response
- 3) Pre-award Catalogue Request
- 4) Pre-award Catalogue
- 5) Shopping Cart

This document does not apply to the choreographies using in the specified transactions. These choreographies are specified in the related EN 17015-1:2024. The relationship between the choreographies and the transaction is described in Clause 6.

The identifier of this transactions document is FprEN 17015-2:202X.

How to claim compliance to these transactions is described in the section 7 “Claiming compliance” section.
